St. James's, November 18.

THE following Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Merchants, and Traders of the Town and Borough of Southwark, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Henry Thrale, Eſq; One of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Merchants, and Traders of the Town and Borough of Southwark, whoſe Names are hereunto ſubſcribed.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

AT a Time when every Art is induſtriouſly employed to diffuſe falſe and unconſtitutional Principles, we, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Merchants, and Traders of the Town and Borough of Southwark, beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence, and entreat a favourable Acceptance of our warmeſt Acknowledgements for thoſe Civil and Religious Bleſſings, which our Feelings tell us we enjoy, in the ampleſt and moſt ſubſtantial Manner, under the Benignity of your Majeſty's Government.

The diſaffectionate Behaviour of ſome of your Majeſty's Colonies fills us with the deepeſt Concern; and although we are prompted by Humanity to pity a miſguided and infatuated People, we hold in the utmoſt Abhorrence thoſe inflammatory Spirits, by whoſe Suggeſtions they have been urged to commit the moſt daring Offences.

Convinced however, that Reſiſtance in any Part of your Majeſty's Dominions to the legal Power and Preeminence of Great Britain, is not only a flagrant Breach of Duty in the Offenders, but alſo an Invaſion of her indiſputable Rights, we humbly truſt, from repeated Experience of your Majeſty's watchful Care, that every Effort will be exerted to reſtore Obedience in America, and to eſtabliſh the Supremacy of Britiſh Legiſlation over every Part of your Majeſty's wide-extended Empire. And we deſire Permiſſion to affirm, that we conſider it to be the Duty of all real Lovers of their Country, and are therefore ourſelves ready to give every Furtherance and Support which our Abilities and reſpective Situations will admit of, to whatever may contribute to preſerve or promote the Honour of your Majeſty's Crown, and, what are inſeparable from it, the Peace, good Order, and Proſperity of our Fellow-Subjects.

May the Wiſdom of the Supreme Diſpoſer of Events guide all your Majeſty's Counſels; may the Enemies of Freedom and mild Government ſee and correct their fatal Error; and may the Crown, with undiminiſhed Splendor, flouriſh upon your Majeſty, and in your illuſtrious Houſe, till all human Empire ſhall be no more!

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and chief Citizens of the City of Hereford, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Sir Richard Symons, Bart. One of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and chief Citizens of the ancient and loyal City of Hereford, in Council aſſembled, beg Leave, at this alarming and critical Juncture, to tender our Sentiments of Duty and Affection to your Majeſty, and our inviolable Attachment to our free and happy Conſtitution.

Penetrated with theſe Sentiments, we lament the unnatural Defection of Part of your Majeſty's Subjects in America from their Allegiance to this their Parent State, as well as the unſucceſsful Endeavours hitherto uſed to bring them back to their Duty.

W

We truſt your Majeſty, of your great Wiſdom and Clemency, will apply wiſe and wholeſome Meaſures to conciliate their Affections, and reclaim thoſe deluded People to a true Senſe of their Duty and Intereſt.

But alas! ſhould ſuch Meaſures fail, we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we are ready, to the utmoſt of our Abilities, to ſupport your Majeſty in ſuch vigorous and Conſtitutional Meaſures, as may beſt conduce to accompliſh this ſalutary Purpoſe, and promote the Happineſs and Dignity of your Majeſty, and the whole Britiſh Empire.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall in the ſaid City, the Sixth Day of November, in the Year of our Lord, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-five.

The following Addreſs of the Biſhop and Clergy of the Iſle and Dioceſe of Man, having been tranſmitted to the Earl of Suffolk, One of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

PERMIT, moſt Gracious Sovereign! The Biſhop and Clergy of the Iſle and Dioceſe of Man, few in Number, inconſiderable in Influence, and remote in Situation, but in Duty and Affection to your Sacred Perſon, your Family, and Government, equal to thoſe of any Dioceſe in your Majeſty's Dominions, to expreſs, before You, Sentiments, which, ſpringing warm from their Hearts, their cooleſt and moſt deliberate Judgments alſo approve.

Fully ſenſible of our own Unimportance, we ſhould think it Preſumption to interrupt your Majeſty with the Tender of our moſt humble Duty, did not the Circumſtances of the Times, and the very culpable Behaviour of ſome of our Fellow-Subjects, ſeem to call upon all Perſons, of all Ranks and Profeſſions, "high and low, "rich and poor, one with another," to declare their Abhorrence of the daring and unprovoked Rebellion, begun and carried on, in ſeveral of your Majeſty's Colonies, againſt the Authority of the whole Legiſlative Power of Great Britain.

We profeſs the ſame Paſſion for Freedom, the ſame ſteady Adherence to our juſt and legal Rights, which is pretended to be the Object in Purſuit by the Advocates for nominal Liberty and real Licentiouſneſs; but we know not, nor expect any true Liberty, except under the Guardianſhip of the Laws; and we know not, and hope never to know, any other Guardians of the Laws, than our Sovereign, and his two Houſes of Parliament.

That the deluded and unthinking Many are (as is uſual in ſuch Caſes) miſled and deceived by the deſigning and ambitious Few, we are fully perſuaded; and that the Former may have their Eyes opened, their Errors removed, and (then) their Faults forgiven; and the Latter be brought to ſpeedy Repentance, or to their deſerved Puniſhment, we earneſtly pray.

Our Prayers and our Hearts are, alas! all we have to offer to your Majeſty; but theſe, becauſe ſincere, will by You, Sire, not be diſdained.

May the preſent Diſturbance be the only one that ſhall ever diſquiet your Royal and Benevolent Mind! May it be ſhort as the tranſient Storm, and be ſucceeded by an unruffled Calm, a long and glorious Sunſhine; May all your Subjects, both at Home and Abroad, be duly ſenſible of the Bleſſings they enjoy under your juſt and gentle Rule! And may they expreſs their grateful Senſe of thoſe Bleſſings, by unfeigned Piety towards their God, and undiſſembled Loyalty to their King; May your Majeſty's Enemies (who, if your Subjects, are Enemies to their Country) "be clothed with Rebuke, "with Shame and Diſhonor! But upon your own Royal "Head, and on thoſe of your Poſterity, may your Crown "flouriſh, till all human Empire ſhall be no more."

The following Addreſs of the Houſe of Keys repreſenting the Iſle of Mann, having been tranſmitted to the Earl of Suffolk, One of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal Subjects, the Houſe of Keys repreſenting the Iſle of Mann, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majeſty's Throne with this our dutiful Addreſs, ſenſible of the Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's Government. We are deſirous to expreſs our Loyalty and Affection to your Majeſty's Perſon, and our utter Deteſtation of all traitorous Conſpiracies and Rebellion, and eſpecially at this critical Juncture, when an unnatural Rebellion has been raiſed in ſome of your Majeſty's Colonies, and encouraged and abetted by wicked and deſigning Men.

We not only lament the Deluſion of thoſe unhappy People, but think it our Duty, as loyal Subjects and Well-Wiſhers to our happy Conſtitution, openly to declare our Abhorrence of ſuch Miſdoings.

We truſt in your Majeſty's Wiſdom, that every Means will be uſed to bring them to a proper Senſe of the Allegiance which they owe to your Majeſty, and the Power which has preſerved and protected them: And we are confident your Majeſty will exert that Power with Lenity. And we moſt fervently pray, That Divine Providence may ſo proſper your Majeſty's benevolent Intentions, that your miſtaken and deluded Subjects in America may ſee their Errors, and become once more happily united under your Majeſty's Conſtitutional Government; and that the Bleſſings, derived to us from your Majeſty's Auguſt Family, may continue, and be handed down to our lateſt Poſterity.

The following Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Freeholders, Juſtices of the Peace, and Commiſſioners of the Land Tax of the County of Renfrew, has been preſented to His Majeſty by John Craufurd, Eſq; their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Freeholders, Juſtices of the Peace, and Commiſſioners of the Land Tax of the County of Renfrew.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Freeholders, Juſtices of the Peace, and Commiſſioners of the Land-Tax of the County of Renfrew, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne, with Hearts full of Zeal and Affection for your Majeſty's Perſon and Government.

Deeply impreſſed with a Senſe of Gratitude and Fidelity to your Majeſty, happy under the Influence of your mild and beneficent Adminiſtration, rejoicing in the Contemplation of your Virtues, we behold, with Pity and with Indignation, the daring Attempts of your Colonies to diſturb the Tranquillity, and to interrupt the Felicity of your Reign.

We commiſerate the Errors, we deteſt the Guilt, of thoſe deluded People, who, ſeduced by the wicked Arts of deſigning Men, and actuated by Prejudice and Paſſion, abuſe the venerable Name of Liberty, and employ it as a Cover for their Treaſonable Purpoſe of withdrawing their Allegiance from your Majeſty, of renouncing their Subordination to Great Britain, and of arrogating Independance to themſelves.

We aſſert the Principle, that in the Conſtitution of every State, there muſt be one ſupreme, uncontroulable Power, whoſe Dictates all muſt obey. We wiſh for no Liberty to ourſelves, and can admit of none to others, beyond what we all are intitled to, by the Laws of our Country. We diſclaim thoſe timid, intereſted, or factious Suggeſtions, in Favour of Lenity and Conceſſions, to Subjects in Rebellion, while they have Arms in their Hands. Upon their firſt Returns to Duty, and Submiſſion, none can doubt your Majeſty's gracious Declaration, That you will be ready to receive the Miſled with Tenderneſs and Mercy.

Though an occaſional Increaſe or Diminution of Trade

Trade muſt appear of leſs Importance, when the Conteſt is for National Honour, and the Preſervation of great National Rights; yet we cannot help obſerving with Satisfaction, that our Commercial Intereſts have not ſuffered by the Defection of the American Provinces; and that their malignant Combinations to diſtreſs and alarm this Country, by a total Prohibition of Trade, have happily been hitherto diſappointed. The valuable and extenſive Manufactures of the Town of Paiſley, and other Parts of this induſtrious and populous County, have at no Period had a greater Produce, or a more ready Demand. Every Hand is full of Employment, and every Heart full of Confidence; relying on your Majeſty's Wiſdom and Fortitude, to put a ſpeedy End to thoſe Diſorders, and to reſtore the Bleſſings of Peace and Concord to all your Dominions.

Permit us to aſſure your Majeſty, that, animated by the united Sentiments of Loyalty, Love of our Country, Regard for our own Intereſts, and thoſe of our Poſterity, we are determined to exert our utmoſt Efforts, in Support of your Majeſty's Authority, the Supreme Power of the Legiſlature, and the Conſtitutional Dependance of every Part of the Britiſh Empire.

Signed in our Preſence, and by our Appointment,

Paiſley, November 7, 1775. William Mure, Preſes.

The following Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Town-Council of Paiſley, has been preſented to His Majeſty by John Craufurd, Eſq; Repreſentative in Parliament for the County of Renfrew, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Town-Council of Paiſley, in Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE ſhould be unworthy of the Bleſſings which we enjoy as Britiſh Subjects, did we fail, at this Time, to expreſs our Attachment to that Government which conveys and ſecures them.

With much Concern and Abhorrence we behold the unnatural and daring Attempt of your Majeſty's American Subjects to throw off their Subjection to legal Authority, and to ſubvert thoſe very Laws, under which they have riſen to Power and Opulence.

Enjoying true Liberty and Peace, we wiſh to ſee them reſtored to our Fellow-Subjects; and are convinced, that this great End will be moſt effectually promoted, by the ſteady Exertion of thoſe Powers, which the Conſtitution has veſted in your Majeſty; fully perſuaded, that they will ever be wiſely employed by a Monarch, who while able to chaſtiſe rebellious Subjects, declares from the Throne, that He is ready to receive the Miſled with Tenderneſs and Mercy. Animated with theſe Sentiments, it is our ſteady Purpoſe to ſupport the Rights of your Majeſty, as Sovereign of all your Dominions, and the ſupreme Authority of the Britiſh Legiſlature over the whole Empire.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that although this be among the firſt Manufacturing Towns in North Britain, and, by its Situation, moſt likely to be affected by the unconſtitutional Proceedings of the Colonies; our Trade, in moſt of its Branches, in no Degree has ſuffered from their ungrateful Conduct. Our Manufactures daily encreaſe and afford Employment for thouſands of loyal Subjects; and we are perſuaded, that to enforce Submiſſion to the Laws of Great Britain, is abſolutely neceſſary to ſecure a laſting Commerce with America.

For every Advantage which we derive from your Majeſty's Care and Attention to the Good of your People, we humbly beg Leave to preſent to your Majeſty our moſt ſincere Acknowledgements. That your Majeſty may long reign over a happy and united People, is the earneſt Prayer of your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, The Magiſtrates and Town-Council of Paiſley.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment, by our firſt Magiſtrate: And we have ordered the Common Seal of the Town to be hereto fixed.

Paiſley, November 7, 1775. John Storie.

The following Addreſs of the Corporation of Bewdley in the County of Worceſter, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Charles Henry Lyttelton, Eſq; their Repreſentative in Parliament, accompanied by the Right Honourable Lord Lyttelton, High Steward of the Corporation, and Charles Baldwyn, Eſq; the Recorder, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects the Corporation of Bewdley in the County of Worceſter, in Common Council aſſembled, moſt humbly beg Leave, at this very important Criſis, to approach your Majeſty, with Hearts full of Zeal, for the Maintenance of thoſe Rights which are inſeparably attached to your Majeſty's Imperial Crown, and Abhorrence of thoſe unconſtitutional Doctrines and Practices, which have plunged ſo large a Part of your Majeſty's American Subjects into open Rebellion, againſt the Supreme Legiſlative Authority of your Majeſty in your High Court of Parliament.

As Engliſhmen we hold ourſelves bound to concur with Alacrity in ſuch Meaſures, as, in the Wiſdom of your Majeſty, and the Great Council of the Nation, ſhall be found neceſſary to aſſert and confirm the ancient unalienable Power and Juriſdiction of the Three Eſtates of this Realm over every Part of the Britiſh Dominions in all Caſes whatſoever; and as Men, whoſe Welfare is more immediately dependent on Trade, and who know the Importance of the Objects in Diſpute, we earneſtly ſupplicate your Majeſty to perſevere in ſuch Courſes, as may moſt effectually ſubdue that treaſonable and ungrateful Spirit, in the American Provinces, which manifeſtly tends to throw off every Reſtraint commercial and political, which, as Colonies that owe their Exiſtence to the Support and Protection of this Country, Law, Reaſon, and Juſtice, have ſubjected them to.

Permit us, Sir, to conclude, with our fervent Prayers to Almighty God, That our deluded Fellow-Subjects may ſoon return to a juſt Senſe of their Duty; and that your Majeſty may long live and reign the Father of a happy and undivided People.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall in Bewdley, this Eighth Day of November, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-five.

W. A. Roberts, Town Clerk.

The following Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Town-Council of the City of Brechine, having been tranſmitted to the Earl of Suffolk, One of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Town-Council of the City of Brechine, in Common-Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Town Council of the City of Brechine, beg Leave to approach your Royal Throne, as well from Duty, as from a ſincere Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, at a Time, when Rebellion amongſt ſome of your Majeſty's Subjects in America rears its Head, and bids Defiance to the Laws; to expreſs our Loyalty and Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon, Family, and Government; and to aſſure your Majeſty, that, from the Bottom of our Hearts, we abhor and deteſt the rebellious Acts of your Coloniſts, and that we utterly diſapprove of every Method whatever, tending to inflame the Minds of your Majeſty's peaceful Subjects againſt your Majeſty and thoſe of your moſt Honourable Council, while proſecuting Meaſures ſo highly neceſſary for bringing to Reaſon, and Submiſſion to the Laws, thoſe of your rebellious and deluded Subjects, who have endeavoured to throw off their Dependence on the Parent State.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, with the moſt unfeigned Truth, that we look upon thoſe Attempts with the utmoſt Indignation; and moſt earneſtly wiſh that the Meaſures adopted by the Legiſlature, may, by the Aid of the Almighty, be the ſpeedy Means of reſtoring Tranquility, and putting an End to civil Diſcord: For obtaining of which happy End, we will ſupport your Majeſty, and the Authority of the Legiſlature, with our Lives and Fortunes.

That your Majeſty and your Royal Heirs may reign to lateſt Poſterity over an united and happy People, is our moſt ardent Wiſh.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects,
The Magiſtrates and Town-Council of your City of Brechine.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment, and the Seal of the City is affixed.

John Moliſon, Provoſt.

The following Addreſs of the principal Inhabitants of the antient Burrough of Perth, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Honourable Colonel James Murray, Repreſentative

Repreſentative in Parliament for the County of Perth, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting; Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful Subjects, the principal Inhabitants of your antient Burrough of Perth, beg Leave, at this important Criſis, to teſtify our grateful Senſe of the many Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's Government, and our Abhorrence of the unnatural and unprovoked Rebellion which has been excited among our deluded Fellow-Subjects of America, by the Artifices of ambitious and deſigning Men.

The lenient Meaſures which your Majeſty, induced by your paternal Tenderneſs, had employed for reclaiming that infatuated People, having proved ineffectual, your Majeſty has at laſt been compelled, by their obſtinate Diſobedience, to have Recourſe to more vigorous Exertions. We think ourſelves bound, by every Conſideration of Duty and Intereſt, to declare our Reſolution to ſupport your Majeſty on this Occaſion, ſo far as we are able, in our ſeveral Stations and Profeſſions, being convinced, that the Supremacy of the Britiſh Legiſlature over the Colonies is eſſential to the Harmony, Strength, and Happineſs of the whole Empire.

The following Addreſs of the Freeholders of the County of Berwick, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Colonel James Pringle, their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Freeholders of the County of Berwick, in General Meeting aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

ENjoying under your Majeſty all the Bleſſings which a mild and equal Government can beſtow, we obſerve, with inexpreſſible Grief, an unnatural and ungrateful Rebellion broke out in Part of your Majeſty's Colonies, threatening all the Evils of Civil War.

With equal Concern and Surprize we obſerve Numbers of your Majeſty's Subjects in America, who have ſuffered no actual Oppreſſion, miſled by Apprehenſions of Danger to their Freedom from Great Britain, the Seat of Liberty itſelf; and we behold with Deteſtation the Arts that have been uſed to ſeduce, and by which the Contagion has been ſpread ſo wide.

Though the Forbearance and Lenity which your Majeſty has ſhewn, and the Conciliatory Advances made by the Wiſdom of Parliament, fully evince how ready your Majeſty has been, not only to redreſs all Grievances, but alſo to quiet Apprehenſions; yet, inſtead of making ſuch Submiſſion as is due to your Majeſty's Dignity, and the Supremacy of the Britiſh Parliament, an open Rebellion is raiſed by theſe deluded People, undeſerving of the Bleſſings they enjoy, ungrateful to the Power by which they have been reared and protected.

Theſe Conſiderations call upon all your Majeſty's loyal Subjects, and, among others, upon the Freeholders of this County, to approach your Majeſty's Royal Perſon, aſſuring your Majeſty, that with their Lives and Fortunes they are ready to ſupport the Honour and Dignity of your Majeſty's Crown, and the Supremacy of the Britiſh Legiſlature; confident that the Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Councils, your paternal Love for all your Subjects, and the united Force and Valour of your Kingdoms, will have their full and proper Exertion.

Signed by Sir John Stuart, of Allanbank, Baronet, Præſes of the Meeting, by their Order, and in their Preſence, at Greenlaw, the 31ſt Day of October, 1775. John Stuart.

The following Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy, Freeholders, and Commiſſioners of Supply of the County of Clackmanan, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Colonel Ralph Abercromby, their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy, Freeholders, and Commiſſioners of Supply of the County of Clackmanan, conſcious of the many Bleſſings we enjoy under your mild and equitable Government, and penetrated with the deepeſt Senſe of the unhappy Situation into which ſo great a Number of your Subjects in America have been led, by the artful and traiterous Miſrepreſentations of their ſelf-intereſted and deſigning Leaders, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Throne, to aſſure your Majeſty, in the moſt ſolemn and publick Manner, of our Abhorrence and Deteſtation of their unconſtitutional Principles, and of the heart-felt Concern with which we behold their preſent Rebellion.

We are the more ſtrongly induced to conſider it as our indiſpenſible Duty moſt ſeriouſly to addreſs your Majeſty on this Occaſion, when we reflect, that our deluded Fellow-Subjects in America have been taught to believe, that, by oppoſing the Supreme Authority of Parliament, and by diſobeying our Legiſlature, they act agreeably to the Sentiments of the greater Part of your Subjects in Great-Britain.

We therefore embrace this Opportunity of unanimouſly declaring, that we conſider ſuch Principles and Practices as repugnant to the true Spirit of the Britiſh Conſtitution, and as deſtructive of that Liberty which can only exiſt where there is a ſtrict Obſervance of the Laws; and that we are firmly reſolved to exert ourſelves to the utmoſt, in our reſpective Spheres, to ſupport this great and important Cauſe, in which the Rights of your Majeſty's Crown, and the Intereſt of your People, are ſo deeply concerned.

We flatter ourſelves, that the vigorous and deciſive Meaſures your Majeſty ſeems reſolved to adopt, will, by the Bleſſing of the Almighty, ſpeedily produce the deſired Effect of re-eſtabliſhing Peace and Harmony between Great Britain and her Colonies, by convincing the Latter, that Great Britain, from whom they derive their Origin, by whom they have been nouriſhed and ſupported in their Infancy, and by whom they have been protected from Foreign Enemies, at the Expence of much Blood and Treaſure, can ſtill exert and vindicate the Rights of a Parent State.

Upon the whole then, Great Sire, it is our fervent Prayer and moſt ardent Deſire, that your Majeſty may long continue to reign over a free and a happy People; and that this Empire may be tranſmitted to your lateſt Poſterity entire and undivided.

Signed in our Preſence, and by our Appointment, at Clackmanan, this 7th Day of November, 1775 Years, by William Cathcart, Præſes.

The following Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Town Council of St. Andrew's, in Common-Council aſſembled, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Henry Dundas, Eſq; Lord Advocate of Scotland, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Unto the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Town Council of St. Andrew's, in Common-Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Magiſtrates and Town Council of your Majeſty's antient City of St. Andrew's, beg Leave humbly to approach the Throne, with Sentiments of unfeigned Affection and Loyalty to your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon, Family, and Government.

Deeply impreſſed with a grateful Senſe of the many Bleſſings, which we, and all the Subjects of this extenſive Empire, enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and gracious Adminiſtration, we have beheld, with Indignation, the Arts by which factious and turbulent Men have endeavoured, for ſome Years paſt, to alienate the Affections of your Majeſty's Subjects, and to diſturb the Tranquility of your Government. We lament that your Majeſty's American Colonies have been ſo far deluded and miſled by theſe Arts, as to abandon their Connection with their Parent-State, by which they had been reared and protected: And we wiſh, in this publick Manner, to teſtify our Abhorrence of that unnatural Spirit of Rebellion, which, notwithſtanding all the Lenity and Forbearance they have experienced, has at laſt broke forth in Acts of open Hoſtility, and has led them to take up Arms againſt the beſt of Sovereigns, who, through his whole Reign, has ſhewn himſelf the Father of all his People, and the Guardian of their Rights.

We have entire Confidence in the Wiſdom and Rectitude of your Majeſty's Counſels; and we truſt that, under God, they will ſpeedily prove effectual for ſubduing the rebellious Provinces, and for reſtoring Peace and Tranquility upon Terms becoming the Dignity of the Supreme Legiſlative Authority of this Empire.

At a Time when ſome of thoſe, who even aſpire at a Seat in the Britiſh Senate, are accuſed of treaſonable Practices and Conſpiracies, permit us, Great Sir, who live in a diſtant Part of your Kingdom, to expreſs our reſpectful Submiſſion to your Government, our Veneration for the Conſtitution of Great Britain, and our firm Reſolution to ſupport and defend it at all Times to the utmoſt of our Power.

Signed by our Præſes, in our Name, in our Preſence, and by our Appointment.

Chriſtianus Adamſon, Dean of Guild.

St. Andrew's, October 3, 1775.

The following Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Freeholders, Juſtices of the Peace, and Commiſſioners of Supply of the County of Nairn, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Honourable Colonel Cofmo Gordon, their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Freeholders, Juſtices of the Peace, and Commiſſioners of Supply of the County of Nairn.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders, Juſtices of Peace, and Commiſſioners of Supply of the County of Nairn, think it our indiſpenſible Duty, at this Juncture, humbly to addreſs your Majeſty, and to declare our Abhorrence of the preſent unnatural Rebellion carried on by many of your infatuated Subjects in America: In doing this, we can aſſure your Majeſty, that we expreſs not only our own Sentiments, but thoſe of our Fellow-Subjects of all Ranks, in this Corner of your Majeſty's Dominions.

With profound Humility we profeſs our unalterable Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Family, and our moſt cordial Approbation of the early Meaſures adopted for giving a Check to the firſt Dawnings of Diſobedience. —— This County, in the late War, ſent out many of its Sons to defend your Majeſty's ungrateful Colonies againſt the Invaſion of Foreign Enemies; and they will now, when called upon, be equally ready to repel all the Attempts of the Traiterous and Diſaffected, againſt the Dignity of your Crown, and the juſt Rights of the Supreme Legiſlature of Great Britain.

By Appointment of the Meeting,

Hugh Roſe, Preſes.

Nairn, November 7, 1775.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Capital-Burgeſſes, Common-Councilmen, and Town-Clerk of the Borough and Pariſh of Southmolton in the County of Devon, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Charles Warwick Bampfylde, Eſq; One of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the City of Exeter, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Capital Burgeſſes, Common-Councilmen, and Town-Clerk of the Borough and Pariſh of Southmolton in the County of Devon.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

AT a Time when one Part of your Majeſty's Dominions is in actual Rebellion, which, there is too much Cauſe to think, hath been excited and fomented by ill-diſpoſed People in another Part of them, Silence in any Man or Body of Men, who profeſs themſelves well-affected to your Majeſty and the Conſtitution, would betray a juſtly reprehenſible Inattention, in a Matter of ſo great Importance.

Permit, therefore, moſt Gracious Sovereign, your Majeſty's moſt faithful and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Capital-Burgeſſes, Common-Councilmen, and Town-Clerk of your Borough and Pariſh of Southmolton in the County of Devon, to join the reſt of your Majeſty's loyal Subjects, in expreſſing our warmeſt Zeal and Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, to teſtify in the beſt Manner we at preſent can, our Senſe of, and Gratitude for, the many Bleſſings we derive, under Divine Providence, from your Majeſty; and to declare our utter Diſapprobation and Abhorrence of thoſe Principles, which at firſt occaſioned, and have ſince promoted, thoſe Troubles and Diſturbances, which now prevail in America.

We moſt heartily wiſh that this deluded People may ſoon ſee their Error, and return to their Duty.

Should they however ſtill perſiſt in their Obſtinacy and Diſobedience, we entirely confide in your Majeſty's Wiſdom and Goodneſs, for taking ſuch Meaſures as will effectually ſecure Obedience to the Supreme Authority in and from all Parts of your Majeſty's Dominions.

And we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will chearfully contribute every Thing in our Power towards the Maintenance and Support of that Authority, as far as our Influence extends.—And we will uſe our utmoſt Efforts to diſcourage and prevent any Tendency to Diſaffection or Diſregard for your Majeſty's and our valuable Conſtitution; and upon all Occaſions endeavour to approve ourſelves your Majeſty's moſt faithful, dutiful, and loyal Subjects.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall of the ſaid Borough and Pariſh, this Tenth Day of November, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-five.

Signed by Order, and with the Concurrence of,

John Starland, Town Clerk.

Dublin, November 7.

Saturday laſt being the Anniverſary of the Birth of the late King William the Third, of glorious Memory, in the Morning the Flag was diſplayed on Bedford Tower; at Noon there was a ſplendid Appearance of the Nobility, and other Perſons of Diſtinction, at the Caſtle, to compliment his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant; after which his Excellency, attended by the Nobility and Gentry, and eſcorted by a Squadron of Horſe, went in Proceſſion round the Statue of King William; the Regiments on Dublin Duty lined the Statue on each Side; and, after his Excellency's Return to the Caſtle, the Great Guns at the Salute-Battery, in His Majeſty's Park the Phœnix, were fired three Rounds, and anſwered by Vollies from the Regiments in Garriſon, which were drawn out in the Royal Square in the Barracks; and the Night concluded with Illuminations, Bonfires, and other Demonſtrations of Joy.

By the laſt Advices from Baſſora, the Town continues to be well defended; the Muſcat Fleet, conſiſting of 50 Sail, great and ſmall, was daily expected to relieve the Place; and it is not doubted, if the Paſcha of Bagdat ſends Succours, that the Perſians will be obliged to raiſe the Siege.
